

International Orders – Do you ship internationally?

Our website is set up to ship within the continental USA. International orders can in most cases be accepted with the understanding that the sender agrees to pay any additional costs incurred for postage and required government documentation. Lost or damaged packages cannot be replaced due to the expenses already incurred in shipping. To date, we have successfully shipped internationally for example to Canada, Hawaii, and Germany. Should you wish to ship outside of the U.S. please contact our office Monday through Friday during the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Do you charge Sales Tax?

Oregon is a sales tax free state so no sales tax will be assessed on online or retail orders.

How are Shipping Costs calculated?

Shipping is calculated automatically based on the weight of your order, the zip code to which it is being shipped, and the shipping method selected. It is prudent to view the charges for a single item and then what the costs would be to add another item. To see what your shipping costs will be please visit the checkout page once you have added an item to the shopping cart and then fill out the "Ship To" information. You can continue to shop after doing this by clicking on the "Continue Shopping" link. Each time you add subsequent items to the cart your shipping amount adjusts accordingly on the shopping cart page. Please note you can select different shipping methods anytime while you are on the shopping cart page to see what the associated rates are. Shipping and handling charges are dictated by FEDERAL EXPRESS and the US Postal authority and cover the cost of product shipment. Oregon Hill does not profit from the calculated shipping costs.

What Shipping Carriers and Shipping Methods are available?

Available shipping options used are FEDERAL EXPRESS Ground, FEDERAL EXPRESS 3 Day Select, FEDERAL EXPRESS 2 Day Air, FEDERAL EXPRESS Next Day Air, and Priority Mail through the United States Post Office. Please aware that Rush orders will increase the shipping rates. If shipping to a PO Box, APO or FPO Priority Mail must be used, see "Shipping to a PO Box, APO or FPO" below.

How quickly will you ship my order?

Orders are shipped the same business day if received prior to the scheduled FEDERAL EXPRESS pick-up. If shipments have gone for the day, orders will ship the next business day. All shipments are completed Mondays through Fridays (excluding holidays) including Priority Mail shipments. On rare occasion a product may go to backorder in which case you will be contacted by email or by phone at the number/email address provided on the order. (Note: "business day" does not count Saturday nor Sunday. Be sure to take this into consideration when you need your order to arrive by a particular date.)

Expected Package Arrivals – How long does it take?

The usual and customary postal timeframe apply. With the exception of packages shipped via Express delivery, west coast state destinations will arrive within 4-6 business days from the date of shipment, mid west state destinations (as well as Alaska and Hawaii) 5-7 business days, and east coast state destinations 7-10 business days.

Shipping to a PO Box, APO or FPO?

FEDERAL EXPRESS does not deliver to these types of addresses. We can ship to any PO Box, APO, or FPO via Priority Mail through the United States Post Office. If using this type of destination address is necessary, please call our office, Monday through Friday during the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., to place your order.

Next Day Air or 2-Day Air - Will the order arrive in 1 or 2 days?

Once your order is filled and ready for shipping it will be sent out the same business day or the next business day from when it is received. In cases where orders are shipped out one business day later than the date they were received it will effectively add one extra business day to delivery times. Please also note that weekends and holidays do not count as business days. If your order is sent out Next Day Air on a Friday it will not arrive until the following Monday (providing the Monday is not a holiday). If any portion of your order is out of stock, it would affect the Next Day Air or 2-Day Air. Every attempt will be made to contact you in order to satisfy your selections.

Return Policy

Typically any gourmet food item is non-returnable with exception to obvious defect or the wrong item being shipped. If your package was delivered via FEDERAL EXPRESS and there is visible damage to the outer box, you should open the box in the presence of the FEDERAL EXPRESS delivery person. If your FEDERAL EXPRESS delivery person is not present, open the package carefully and keep the box and contents as proof of damage. You will need to notify FEDERAL EXPRESS of the package damaged in transit within 24-48 hrs. We will replace any items damaged in shipping provided we are made aware of the damage within 48 hours of your package arrival. Please notify our office of the damage as well or if you received an item that you did not select. We want our customers to be fully satisfied and will assist you in any way we can. Each item receives a quality check before it is packaged and each order is checked for accuracy prior to leaving our facility. Oregon Hill will not replace product that was purchased from a store other than our website. You will need to refer to the actual place of purchase for their return or replacement policy.

How do I return a package?

Gourmet good items are non-returnable. If you feel you must return an item, please call our office to determine course of action.

Lost Packages - How can you assist me?

All orders received are reviewed for accuracy prior to shipping to ensure that packages are properly addressed and labeled with the address as it was provided to us. If for any reason there is a question regarding the address as supplied, you will be contacted for clarification. However, please be aware that we cannot be held responsible for orders for which we are given incomplete or incorrect addresses. All packages shipped by FEDERAL EXPRESS are assigned a tracking number and are guaranteed. Priority Mail orders will be sent with delivery confirmation in most cases but are non-guaranteed. Responsibility for packages that are lost, stolen or otherwise missing when shipped by way of Priority Mail will be that of the United States Postal System. We will provide any assistance possible should there be loss. Incorrect addresses supplied by the customer causing a package to be re-delivered by the carrier, resulting in additional shipping fees, will be the responsibility of the customer. The customer will make payment reimbursement of said charge to Oregon Hill.
